

DIAMOND SHIP Management

Diamond Ship Management is an Antwerp based ship management company managing 8 reefer vessels..
We are currently looking for a MARINE SUPERINTENDENT.

ROLE

The Marine Superintendent will act as the Company Security Officer and Company Safety Officer.

His/her primary responsibilities include further:

- Ensure vessel statutory and trading certification is maintained 100% in line with requirements.
- Near miss, incident and casualty reporting, follow up and root cause analysis.
- Carry out vessel audits, Safety, Quality and Environmental.
- Make regular visits to any vessel as required to inspect and verify standard of safety equipment.
- Submit reports as required on current status of vessels, vessel requirements and factors pertinent to fleet operations.
- Organize prepare and review vessel maintenance budget for safety, nautical and communications equipment
- Responsible for collating vessel downtime and off hire claims from charterers.

PROFILE

Master nautical Science or equivalent, and 2 to 3 years experience as Senior deck Officer

- Planning & organizing: good time management skills, ability to identify and act on priorities.
- Analytical problem solving (familiar with root cause analysis)
- Communication skills: good written and verbal skills (passing on information).
- Interpersonal skills: self-motivated and sound level of discipline, leadership skills, focus on human relations & motivation, showing initiative & decision-making capabilities, handling difficult situations
- Good computer literacy - proficiency in the use of MS Office (specifically excel)
- Flexibility

European residential status is a must.

COMPENSATION

Competitive local compensation package

CONTACT

Diamond Ship Management at hr@diamondship.be Tel +32 3 292 3900