

DIAMOND SHIP
Management

Diamond Ship Management is an Antwerp based ship management company managing 8 reefer vessels.
We are currently looking for a TECHNICAL SUPERINTENDENT.

ROLE

The Technical Superintendent is responsible for the technical operation of a group of managed vessels.

The primary responsibilities include:

- reviewing & organizing vessel maintenance and technical issues with the prime objective to maintain vessel operational efficiency within the Safety & Quality standards,
- ensuring that all necessary operational parameters are monitored and reacted on where necessary,
- ensuring all vessel incoming reporting is as required. Monitor and maintain the vessel planned maintenance system,
- responsible for administration of Hull and Machinery claims, P&I claims (other than crew & cargo),
- organizing, preparing & reviewing vessel maintenance budget. Ensuring that the vessels kept adequately stocked in an efficient manner,
- vessel inspections, condition assessment, technical guidance and technical support, organizing and preparing technical projects/drydock specifications & invoices,
- responsible for technical interviews and assisting in the selection of certified and qualified technical staff. Ensuring department staff development is in line with company operational and cultural philosophy.

PROFILE

Chief Engineer Certification/Degree or equivalent, and 2 to 3 years experience as Chief Engineer

- Planning & organizing: good time management skills, ability to identify and act on priorities
- Analytical problem solving (familiar with root cause analysis)
- Communication skills: good written and verbal skills (passing on information)
- Interpersonal skills : self-motivated and sound level of discipline, leadership skills, focus on human relations & motivation, showing initiative & decision-making capabilities, handling difficult situations
- Good computer literacy - proficiency in the use of MS Office (specifically excel)
- Flexibility

European residential status is a must.

COMPENSATION

Competitive local compensation package

CONTACT

Diamond Ship Management at hr@diamondship.be Tel +32 3 292 3900